

How plans are being mapped

2013 nongrandfathered plans

2014 metal tier plans

Here's an overview of how the 2013 nongrandfathered plans are being mapped to the new 2014 metal tier plans.

When a group moves to a metal tier plan at renewal, we keep them in the same product family so their accumulations don't reset. If the group chooses to move to the SHOP, then their accumulations will reset.
